

Established in 1904, the name of Willsbridge has become synonymous with all that is successful in the rearing, breeding and racing of pigeons.

Willsbridge Pigeon Corns are manufactured by Albert E James & Son Ltd, a long-established company in its own right, situated at Barrow Mill in Barrow Gurney on the outskirts of Bristol.

The business keeps a regular account of fanciers' requirements and constantly monitors nutritional research to maintain its tradition of supplying only the best.

The constantly growing list of ever-successful flyers is a testament to the race-proven values of the Willsbridge range.
